

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy laws.
If I desire telephone communication with a particular business,
I will grant them express permission, on an individual basis--not implied permission.